SurgeryWeb Data Flow for online form submissions

Patient/user submits an online form from the Practice website Data is stored in website database so that entry can be viewed by Practice staff in website dashboard Backups of database Data is auto-deleted containing data are from database after 30 stored for maximum 14 days then autodays deleted An email containing the submitted data is created by the server and submitted via 256 bit SSL encrypted connection to the practices nominated secure @nhs.net email address The practice receives the data and processes this for the purpose which the originally submitted form was intended.